

Senior Supplier

(Role Name)

Role Description

The person who represents the interest of those designing, developing, facilitating, procuring, implementing, operating and maintaining the project's deliverables. If the project is internal to the company, this will be a senior member of the department within which the major development effort resides. If developed by an external supplier, it will be a manager from the supplier organisation.

Direction From

*Project Sponsor
Other Business and Technical Management*

Direction To

Project Manager

Prime Responsibilities:

- Represent the interest of the internal or external organisation supplying technical or business services to the project
- Responsible for assuring that procedures are employed to check quality effectively

•